CONTENTS OF VOL. XXV.

SUMMARIES OF POLITICS.

Peace, 1, 742.
Traitors in Canada, 12.
Abuse of Austria, 33.
Invasion of France, 40,
Answer to the Bourbon Proclamation, 65.
Eulogium on General Moreau, 101, 133.
The Emperor Napoleon, 113, 186, 212, 242, 276, 319, 314, 382, 439, 478, 481, 549, 605, 693, 784.
Why are we at war with France? 150.
Occurrences of the War, 159, 192, 223, 255, 285, 320, 352, 447, 480, 544.
Answer to Mr. Canning's Liverpool Speech, 161.
Rowland Hill and the Devil, 193.
Mr. Mant and Captain Campbell, 225.
The Scourge of God, 257.
Norway Independence, 283, 736.
War of Extermination, 289.
Dutch Independence, 307, 374.
Murat, King of Naples, 313.
Peace or War? 316, 443, 701.
French Sufferers, 321.
The Bourbons in France, 349.
The Case of Lord Cochrane, 353, 385, 602, 769, 810.
Bourdeaux and the Bourbons, 417.
Rupture of the Negociations, 419.
Entrance of the Allies into Paris, 460.
Triumph of the Aristocrats, 513.
Re-colonization of America, 518.
French Constitution, 528.
The White Cockade, 538.
Addresses to the King of France, 545, 609, 673.
Affairs of France, 577, 641.
American War, 588, 758, 804.
The Pope, 600, 796.
Indemnity for the Past, 608.
The Reckoning, 633.
Militia Officers, 652.
Corn Laws, 657, 778, 801.
Westminster Address, 669.
To Mr. Coke, on the Corn Laws, 684.
Mr. De Berenger, 690.
To the People of Southampton on the Corn Laws, 705.
The Princess of Wales, 726-732.
Peace and Commerce, 734.
George Rose, the Friend of the People, 737.
Finance, 802.
Russian Troops, 807.
French Liberty of the Press, 808.

REMARKS.

Mr. Mant and Captain Campbell, 16, 149, 203, 300, 337, 495.
Notification to the Readers of the Register, 97, 129, 161.
Public Feeling, 206.
Counter Revolution in France, 499, 598, 637, 665, 760, 798.
Political Occurrences, 800, 831.

COMMUNICATIONS.

On Ecce Homo, 44.
Hortator, on Public Feeling, 210.
———, on Danger Seen in Time, 662.
On "The Scourge of God," 265.
University of Oxford, 269, 482, 473.
On German Sufferers, 303.
On War of Extermination, 328.
T. H. on Magnanimity of Bonaparte, 337.
On French Sufferers, and the Quakers, 427.
On Vanity and Humanity, 328.
On Stock Exchange Morality, 430.
On National Reform, 431.
Bonaparte and the Allies, 467.
Aristides, on Bonaparte and the Bourbons, 469.
——— to the Emperor Alexander, 791.
——— Has Napoleon Fallen? 493.
——— on John Bull's Second Thoughts, 693.
I. M. on Spanish Gratitude, 496.
On the Restoration of the Bourbons, 499.
On Stock Jobbing, 634.
W. C. on Public Debtors, 691.
The Irish Emigrant, 732.
R. F. on the Corn Laws, 735.
On Power and Right, 797.
On the Corn Laws, 798.
———, by T. H. 823.
F. R. on Gaming, 828.

SELECTIONS FROM OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

On the Revolution of France, from Arthur Young's Travels, 77, 564.
Letter from Gen. Moreau to the First Consul, from the Moniteur, 137.
Extract from the Book of Numbers, 18.

CONTENTS OF VOL. XXV.

OFFICIAL PAPERS.

FRANCE.—Speech of the Emperor to the Legislative Body, 16.

——— of Count Regnaud de St. Jean d'Angely, 17.

Letter, Gen. Decaen to the Minister of War, 58.

Bulletins of Napoleon's Armies, 60, 61, 63.

Conscription Decree, 124.

Report of M. De Fontanes, 125.

Declaration of the Allies on entering Paris, 500.

Speech of the President to the Senate, 500.

Letter ditto, to the Provisional Government, 503.

Addresses, the Provisional Government to the Army, 504, 588.

Decree respecting Napoleon's Abdication, 504.

Letters of Prince Schwartzenberg, the Duke of Ragusa, and the Prince of Moskwa, respecting Napoleon, 506.

Act of Napoleon's Abdication, 508.

Decrees as to the New Constitution, 508, 637.

Proclamation, Marshal Jourdan to the Army, 511.

Decree respecting the Liberty of the Press, 512.

Declaration of Rights of 22d Aug. 1795, 535.

Decree as to the Provisional Government, 540.

Speech, the Count D'Artois to the Senate, 540.

———, Count Bergin, &c. to the Senate, 542.

Declaration of Louis XVIII. 666.

Decree respecting the Army, 668.

New Constitution, 760.

Treaty of Fountainbleau, 791.

ENGLAND.—London Gazettes, 20, 21, 23, 27.

PRUSSIA.—Correspondence between the French and Prussian Plenipotentiaries, 45-57.

SPAIN.—Declaration of Ferdinand, dated Madrid, 11th May, 1814, 696.

NAPLES.—Declaration of Ferdinand, dated Palermo, 24th April, 1814, 704.

PRICES AND BANKRUPTS.

Record of the PRICES of Bread, Wheat, Meat, Labour, Bullion, and Funds, in England, during the time that this Volume was publishing; and also of the number of Bankrupts, during the same period; that is, from January to June, 1814, both months inclusive.

BREAD.—The average price of the Quartern Loaf, weighing 4lb. 5oz. 8drms. in London, which is nearly the same as in other parts of the country, 1s. 0¼d.

WHEAT.—The average price for the above period, through all England, per Winchester Bushel of 8 gallons: 9s. 5d.

MEAT.—Per pound, on an average for the time above stated, as sold wholesale at Smithfield Market, not including the value of skin or offal. Beef, 9d.; Mutton, 10d.; Veal, 11d.; Pork, 1s. —N. B. This is nearly the retail price all over the country, the Butcher's profit consisting of the skin and offal.

LABOUR.—The average pay per day of a labouring man employed in farming work, at Botley, in Hampshire, being about a fifth higher than the wages throughout the whole country, 2s. 2d.

BULLION.—Standard Gold in Bars, per Oz. £5. 4s. 3d.—Standard Silver do. 6s. 11½d. N. B. These are the average prices, during the above period, in Bank of England Notes. The prices in Gold and Silver Coin are for an ounce of Gold £3. 17s. 10½d.; for an ounce of Silver, 5s. 2d.

FUNDS.—Average price of the Three Per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, during the above period: 66¼.

BANKRUPTS.—Number of Bankrupts, declared in the London Gazette, during the above period: 572.